

SAMA's various services are available even without the contract. Please see below for more details:

- (1) Provide training to instructors:
  - (a) In addition to the flight, accommodation, transportation, and meals costs for two people, the company must also pay $8,000 to $10,000 for each training session. If during one visit there are two consecutive sessions, the training fees are $16,000 to $20,000.
  - (b) If the number of attendance is below 30, the training fee is $8,000. If the number of attendance is above 30, the training fee is $10,000.
  - (c) The flight costs are determined by the actual amount SAMA spent. SAMA will provide proof of purchase as requested.
  - (d) The training sessions are all 3 days long, and 7 hours per day for a total of 21 hours. There are 4 levels of training. The actual contents of the training depends on the curriculums of the company.
  - (e) SAMA can help with promotional event locally for an extra day.
- (2) SAMA will only provide materials and documents that are included in its training session. Course curriculum and textbook planning will not be provided.
- (3) If the company intends to use materials and books from SAMA, SAMA can provide electronic files for the company to print and redesign covers. Members can purchase at most 20 books from SAMA, 10 abacus books and 10 mental arithmetic books, at $800 per book.
  - (a) The books the company purchased from SAMA can only be used within its country and no other. If franchisees of the Company wish to use the same books in other countries, it can purchase the right to use at two thirds (2/3) the price, which is $550 per book. This applies to any additional country.
  - (b) If the company sells SAMA's books and materials to other countries without the consent of SAMA, once found SAMA can request compensation for 10 times the costs.
- (4) If there are fewer than 3000 students, access to Abacus Pro application will be available at $36 per students every year (or $18 every 6 months). If there are more than 3000 students, access to Abacus Pro application will be available at $30 per students every year (or $15 every 6 months).
